Notwithstanding the aforesaid and without an express written agreement to the contrary the use of Software is always subject to the applicable End User Agreement (refer to Section 10.1 below), as may be modified by Exasol from time to time. The End User Agreement is available at Exasol user portal or at Exasol's homepage. It is not permitted to use NFR-Licenses for any other purposes including, without limitation, use or distribution for any other commercial use or in any billable engagements or for evaluation purposes by Partner's prospects without express prior and written approval by Exasol.

3.2 Disclaimers, No Warranty

For clarity, irrespective of any warranty provisions in the End User Agreement, Exasol accepts no warranties, support or indemnity obligations of any kind with respect to Partner's use of the Software in connection with the Agreement.

3.3 Return of Software

Partner shall cease use of and return all copies of the Software to Exasol upon the earlier to occur of expiration or termination of the Agreement or justified written request by Exasol.

4. Partner Logo, Intellectual Property Rights, Digital Content

4.1 Use of Partner Logo

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Exasol hereby grants Partner a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sub-licensable right to (1) identify itself as an Exasol Authorized or Elite Partner (depending on the specification in the Business Terms in Annex A) and (2) use Exasol's Authorized or Elite Partner Logo (depending on the specification in the Business Terms in Annex A), created by Exasol (referred to as "Partner Logo") and the applicable Software trademarks solely for the purposes foreseen and authorized under the Agreement. The respective Partner Logo shall be available on the Partner Portal.

4.2 Intellectual Property Rights

Exasol or its affiliates own all right, title and interest in and to the Products. Each party will own and retain all rights in its trademarks, logos and other brand elements (collectively, "Trademarks"). To the extent a party grants any rights or licenses to its Trademarks to the other party in connection with this Agreement, the other party's use of such Trademarks will be subject to the reasonable trademark guidelines made available to the other party. Partner shall not remove any Trademarks or other proprietary notices incorporated in, marked on, or affixed to the Products. Partner agrees that it will not register, or attempt to register, any domain name containing the word "Exasol" or any product name of an Exasol product and, if despite the aforesaid, Partner has registered any such domain then Partner herewith undertakes to immediately effect transfer of such domain name to Exasol without charge.

4.3 Digital Content

Exasol creates or from time to time requests third parties to create digital content around a number of topics ("Digital Content"). Exasol grants Partner a non-exclusive, non-transferable and revocable license to use Digital Content and to provide copies in part or in whole and changed within reason to conform to Partner's go-to-market strategy and corporate identity to potential customers. Partner shall not permit anyone other than a potential customer to use or access Digital Content, or display or otherwise make any Exasol-proprietary materials available to anyone without prior written consent from Exasol.

5. Term, Termination

5.1 Term (Refer to Agreement, Section 11)

5.2 Effect of Termination

Upon any expiration or termination of the Agreement, (i) each Partner will return or destroy (and upon request certify complete destruction of) the other Partner's Confidential Information, (ii) all licenses and rights granted under the Agreement will cease (for further obligations refer to Section 3.3 above;

(iii) provided termination is not for breach by Partner, Exasol agrees to pay Partner all Partner fees, if any, properly due prior to the date of termination and (iv) Partner shall immediately pay any outstanding amounts due to Exasol under the Agreement or a related quote. Exasol shall have no liability to Partner of any type arising from termination of the Agreement.

6. Liability

6.1 General

Exasol is only liable for compensation and reimbursement for expenses (including, without limitation, lost profits, lost expenses, etc.) irrespective of the legal basis (e.g., pre-contractual, contractual and similar obligations, product liability, violation of duty or tort) to the following extent:

- a) Liability based on intent or guarantees given by Exasol shall be without limitation.
- b) In the event of gross negligence, Exasol shall be liable for typical, and upon the conclusion of the contract foreseeable damage.
- c) In case of a breach of cardinal duties (such as default) that endangers the purpose of the contract and which does not constitute gross negligence, Exasol shall be held liable only for such damage which is typical for this kind of business and was foreseeable upon the execution of this Agreement, but to the maximum amount of EUR 5.000.

Exasol is entitled to claim contributory negligence of Partner.

6.2 Statutory Provisions

In case of injuries to life, body and health and for claims under the German Product Liability Act, the statutory provisions shall apply.

7. Indemnification

Partner shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Exasol from and against any third-party claims, losses or damages of any type suffered by Exasol in connection with Partner's activities hereunder. Exasol may participate in the defence of any such claims by counsel of its own choosing, at its cost and expense. Partner shall not settle any claim without Exasol's prior written consent if the settlement requires Exasol to take any action, refrain from taking any action, or admit any liability.

8. Confidential Information

Each party (as "Receiving Party") agrees that all code, inventions, know-how, business, technical and financial information it obtains from the disclosing party ("Disclosing Party") constitute the confidential property of the Disclosing Party ("Confidential Information"), provided that it is identified as confidential at the time of disclosure or should be reasonably known by the Receiving Party to be Confidential Information due to the nature of the information disclosed and the circumstances surrounding the disclosure. The Software, Documentation, technical information and other code or data of any type provided by Exasol (or its agents) shall be deemed trade secret and Confidential Information of Exasol without any marking or further designation. Except as expressly authorized herein, the Receiving Party will hold in confidence and not use or disclose any Confidential Information. Affiliates of the Receiving Party will not be considered to be a third party according to this Section. The Receiving Party's non-disclosure obligation shall not apply to information which the Receiving Party can document: (i) was rightfully in its possession or known to it prior to receipt of the Confidential Information; (ii) is or has become public knowledge through no fault of the Receiving Party; (iii) is rightfully obtained by the Receiving Party from a third party without breach of any confidentiality obligation; or (iv) is independently developed by employees of the Receiving Party who had no access to such information. In addition, Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information if so required pursuant to a regulation, law or court order, but only to the minimum extent required to comply with such regulation or order and with advance notice to the Disclosing Party. The Receiving Party acknowledges that disclosure of Confidential Information would cause substantial harm to the Disclosing Party that could not be remedied by the payment of damages alone and therefore that upon any such disclosure by the Receiving Party the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to appropriate equitable relief in addition to whatever remedies it might have at law.

9. Data Protection

The Parties herewith guarantee that in case of transferring data (i.e. customer data) to the other partner they are authorized to do so according to applicable data protection regulations (e.g. because of received approval by customer to the processing of its data). The Parties undertake to process data received from the other partner in accordance with agreed purpose and applicable data protection regulations.

10. Reselling

10.1 General

In case of an Approved Resale Opportunity (Refer to Agreement, Section 4 und 5) Exasol will submit a Quote to Partner. Such quote lists the Products subject to reselling, special terms, if any, and refers to the End User Agreement. The End User Agreement is a set of terms and conditions which applies for the provision of Products by Exasol and is available on Exasol's homepage ("End User Agreement"). The link to the homepage is indicated in the Quote. The Quote and the End User Agreement apply in the specific contractual relationship between Exasol and Partner with regard to the Approved Opportunity. Subject to compliance with the Agreement (i.e. Section 10.2 below etc.), Partner is entitled to resale the Products listed in the Quote. For the avoidance of doubt, reselling or resales of Products mean, that there is no contractual relationship between Exasol and End User, but between Partner and End User. With regard to Services subject to reselling, Exasol is Partner's subcontractor; however, in general there is no contractual relationship between Exasol and End User.

10.2 Enforcement towards End User

Partner is responsible to enter into an agreement with the End User with regard to the Products. Partner agrees to include in its agreement with the End User the provisions of the End User Agreement. Section 1 of the End User Agreement (General Provisions: i.e. remuneration, payment etc.) has not to be included in the agreement with the End User.

10.3 Resale of Services

Partner may resell Services as defined in the End User Agreement in case of an Approved Opportunity. Partner acknowledges to have no right to receive any fees and/or discounted rates for Exasol Services except as stipulated in Annex A of the Agreement. After the initial term of the Service provision of such Approved Opportunity, Exasol may provide Exasol Services directly to the End User at its own discretion (including renewal of such Services) by contacting End User directly. If Partner provides maintenance or professional support services with regard to the Products to end customers, Exasol and Reseller have to agree on the terms and conditions of such service provision in a separate Service Addendum.

11. Miscellaneous

11.1 Assignment

Except as expressly set forth in the Agreement or permitted under mandatory law, no Party may assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior consent of the other Party.

11.2 Independent Contractors

Parties to the Agreement are and remain independent contractors. Irrespective of any use of terms such as “partner”, there is no relationship of partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise or agency created hereby between the Parties. Neither party will have the power to bind the other or incur obligations on the other party’s behalf without the other party’s prior written consent.

11.3 Non-Exclusive

The rights granted to Partner hereunder are non-exclusive and nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to prohibit Exasol from entering into any alliance, referral, resale, end-user license or other agreement with any party anywhere in the world either during or after the Term of the Agreement.

11.4 Audit

Partner will keep accurate and complete records relating to its activities under the Agreement. At Exasol’s request, Exasol may audit such records and Partner’s use of the Software during normal business hours and subject to Partner’s reasonable security requirements.
