

Consultancy Service

Exasol's experts provide comprehensive consulting with regards to optimal usage of Exasol Software during migration or integration projects.

Exasol offers comprehensive consulting on the optimal use of our database with one of our experts.

This service is provided on a case by case and time and material basis.

Some examples of database consulting services include:

- Data Model architecture
- Data import
- ETL / ELT processes
- Performance tuning
- Rights management

The service is provided during Exasol's service times on a time and material basis.