

Performance Service

Exasol will periodically monitor general performance trends (on a monthly basis) and provide performance analysis upon request during Exasol's service times.

If you are interested in consultancy services, please contact your account manager and support for more details.

A VPN access and access to statistical system tables are mandatory for this service. Performance analysis can also be booked on a time and materials basis within the scope of a consultancy service.